

CHAHTA (CHOCTAW)

This map shows the Southeastern United States, including Florida, Georgia, Alabama, and parts of South Carolina and North Carolina. The Choctaw territory is highlighted in yellow, covering a large portion of Alabama and extending into Georgia and Florida. A white circle is drawn around the southern part of the yellow area, indicating a specific location within the territory. The text 'CHAHTA (CHOCTAW)' is displayed in a dark box on the left side of the map.
